Dear Heidelberg Alumni,

We would like you to join us for a special concert

Max Raabe and his Palast Orchester

Friday, April 3, 2015, 8 PM at

The Davis Symphony Hall.

Grove Street, between Van Ness and Franklin

Walking a narrow line between madcap kitsch and sublime musicality, Max Raabe and Palast Orchester evoke the heady, dancing-on-knife-point mood of the Weimar Republic. A conservatory-trained baritone besotted with the vocal style exemplified by the Comedian Harmonists, Raabe interprets vintage hits while also writing original songs. Raabe is a master entertainer whose irony-laced performances combine arresting spectacle with sophisticated, jazz-steeped arrangements. Backed by his polished 12-piece orchestra, the resulting music is consistently dizzying, delightful and devilishly catchy.

While every party would be responsible for purchasing their own tickets, we would like to meet as a HAUS group before or after the concert - or both.

For tickets and information please go to <http://www.sfjazz.org/events/2014-15/ap3/max-raabe> or call 866-920-5299.

Please let us know if you are interested in joining us and if you would prefer to get together prior to the concert or afterwards or both by emailing info@heidelberguniversity.org We will pick a conveniently located place once your comments are in.

We hope to see you on Friday, April 3!
